Name	 Class	Date

Transportation User Profile

Using the provided graphs and charts, develop the following profiles that describe what a typical user is like. In your profile, you can draw a picture of a transportation user, and then also include information such as where they live, what their transportation preference is, how far they tend to travel, and how they typically get around. Your goal is to describe what a typical transportation user is like.

1. Transportation User Today

2. Transportation User in 10 Years